RESPECT IN SPORT

INFORMATION FOR NEW YOUTH/JAMBOREE DIVISION COACHES

- This is the course that one of the coaches is required to have to be behind the bench for a youth/jamboree team at the Native tournament.

- If you already have Speak Out, you don't need to take Respect in Sport. If you aren't sure if you have the Coaches Speak out Course, we can check and confirm.

- There is no longer the Coaches Speak out Course, it is now called Respect in Sport:
  - Here is the site for the Respect in Sport. It is a free on-line course that takes about 2-3 hours. https://yukon.respectinsport.com/secure/en/modules.jsp
  - this takes them right to the log-in site.

- When you take the Respect in Sport Course, when you sign in, ignore the part that says "if you a member of a Yukon Hockey Association ... click here". That will take them to BC Hockey where they charge $30 for the course. If you ignore that, then there is no charge for the course – Yukon Government pays for it. Go to "New Registration" and open the drop down box and click on "coach/manager".
